RECODIFY STATE'S GAME AND FISH LAWS

COMMISSION OF INTERIM POWER IN CHARGE

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES PASSES SUCH BILL UNANIMOUSLY

COMMISSION ALSO WORKING FOR UNIFORM LAWS BETWEEN THIS AND OTHER STATES

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—The Minnesota house of representatives today passed unanimously a bill that would create an interim commission to re-codify the game and fish laws and to work for uniform laws between Minnesota and adjoining states.

Among other bills passed were three calling for the erection of monuments at various locations in the state and still others related to agricultural problems.

Monuments would be erected, according to house bills, at Browns Valley, Moose Lake and New Ulm. The Browns Valley memorial would be in honor of Sam Brown, pioneer Indian fighter, known as the Paul Revere of Minnesota. Settlers who lost their lives in the forest fires of October, 1918, would be paid homage by a monument at Moose Lake and a third at New Ulm would be erected in memory of settlers who lost their lives in the Indian massacres of 1862.

Agricultural measures included a senate bill providing for issuance by the commissioner of agriculture of tags for certified seed potatoes in order to prevent fraud.

House members late today took up 17 banking bills in line with recommendations of Gov. Theodore Christianson, and of the joint legislative committee, which recently completed an investigation of the causes of bank failures in the past two years.

AIR MAIL PLANE REPORTED MISSING

San Francisco, April 4.—(UP)—Search was renewed today for an airmail plane missing since early Sunday.

The plane, piloted by Eddie Neher and with A. Shaller, an official of the Pacific Air Transport Company aboard, left Fresno at 3:30 in the morning on its regular trip toward San Francisco.

Nothing has been heard from the plane since it passed over Modesto going north. Officials of the Transport Company believe the plane either has been forced down in a desolate section of the San Joaquin valley or has fallen into San Francisco Bay.

RECORDS OF U. S. SENATE PROBE ARE INTRODUCED

TOM DAVIS, ATTORNEY FOR THE BLIND SENATOR, ACTS IN MATTER

CLAIM HATE RATHER THAN JUSTICE PROMPTED INVESTIGATION

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—Records of the United States senate investigation of Sen. Thomas D. Schall's election were introduced today in the state senate probe of the same election.

Tom Davis, attorney for the blind senator, had introduced into the testimony a statement made by Schall in the national probe which attempted to prove that those responsible for the investigations were prompted by hate rather than by justice.

A. N. Jacobs, former Schall worker, resumed the place on the witness stand which he has held almost without interruption since the beginning of the hearing.

Davis attempted to show that Jacobs appropriated most of the Schall campaign funds for his own use.

In the cross examination Davis sought to show that Jacobs spent $367 on taxi fares and that he rented an apartment for Louise C. Neely, his secretary, and that on the whole he benefited directly from most of the funds contributed.

Jacobs denied that he had talked with Lieut. Gov. W. I. Nolan in regard to the appointment of United States District Attorney Lafayette French although a telegram from Jacobs to Schall was introduced to show that Jacobs asked Schall to "do something" about the appointment.

The former campaign manager denied that he knew E. W. Backus, named by Schall as one of those responsible for the hearing, but admitted that Schall "had a good deal to do" with the Backus-Brooks Lumber Co. payment of back taxes amounting to more than $3,000,000.

Davis also read into the records testimony given by Frank Corneahy, another campaign worker, at the Washington hearings. One of the statements was that "several prominent Minnesota people are out to get" Sen. Schall.

Corneahy had named Alex Casswell and State Sen. W. H. Brooks, Minneapolis, and another person whose name the court reporter apparently had failed to catch.

"I know who he meant," Schall cried, rising. "He meant Governor Theodore Christianson."

TROOP ORDERS IN PREPARATION FOR ELECTION

TOMORROW'S MAYORALTY CAMPAIGN IN CHICAGO EXCITING

MILITARY AND SHERIFF TAKE "PROPER STEPS TO MEET ANY EMERGENCY"

By MAX BUCKINGHAM (United Press Staff Correspondent) Chicago, April 4.—Troop orders in preparation for tomorrow's mayoralty election are expected to go out today.

Following a conference yesterday between Adjutant General Carlos Black, Major Gen. Roy D. Keehn, commandant of the thirty-third division, and Sheriff Charles Graydon, it was announced that "proper steps will be taken to meet any emergency."

It is expected that three infantry companies in Chicago will be ordered held in readiness in case any outbreak of trouble mars the election.

Request that troops be held in readiness was sent to Governor Len Small Saturday by the sheriff after backers of William Hale Thompson, republican candidate, had charged the democrats were attempting to stir racial trouble. Adjutant General Black was sent here from Springfield to investigate the situation and make the necessary recommendations for preserving peace.

First indications of trouble from the election appeared Sunday when Rep. Lawrence O'Brien, democrat and ward leader for Mayor William E. Dever, democratic candidate, reported that William Damma, republican worker, had threatened his life with a revolver.

Damma was arrested and later released. Later in the day O'Brien reported he had received a telephonic warning against his life and had also been advised the democratic headquarters in his district would be bombed.

A special platoon of police was sent to protect O'Brien and to guard the ward democratic quarters.

Police also prepared for action over Sunday. A squad of machine gunners of the police department went into drill on the lake front. For almost thirty minutes the rat-a-tat of machine guns broke on the Sunday calm as police marksmen trained.

There will be 35 machine gun squads in action tomorrow in addition to more than 200 district squads. An officer, armed with a rifle, will be on duty at each of the troublesome polling places, Chief of Police Morgan A. Collins announced.

Sheriff Graydon announced this morning that the situation on Chicago's political battle-front was most tense.

"The city is on edge. Things are particularly bad in the 24th and 25th wards. I expect no trouble in the colored wards. It is in the other districts that violence, if any, will occur," Graydon said.

Despite the preparations to quiet any trouble tomorrow the three candidates—Thompson, Dever and Dr. John Dill Robertson, independent—predict the vote will be one of the greatest turnouts in the history of Chicago. Predictions are for more than 1,000,000 votes.

EARL CARROLL MUST GO TO ATLANTA PRISON

New York, April 4.—(UP)—Manacled to another federal prisoner, Earl Carroll will leave on April 12 for Atlanta with some 25 or 30 other men to begin serving his sentence of a year and a day for perjury.

Federal Judge A. N. Hand today refused to grant the theatrical producer a further extension of time and ordered him to surrender on that date. Carroll was convicted in connection with his famous "bath tub" party in which Joyce Hawley, show girl, was alleged to have bathed in a tub of champagne on the stage of Carroll's theatre.

HUSBAND ATTENDS TRIPLE FUNERAL; WIFE AND 2 BABIES

Pleasant Prairie, Minn., April 4.—(UP)—Axel Swanson attended the triple funeral for his wife and two babies here today after a coroner's jury Sunday found he was not responsible for their deaths late Saturday.

Homicide and suicide brought death to the Swanson babies and their mother, according to the verdict of the jury.

Mrs. Swanson, the 43-year-old mother, was said to have drowned her 4 and 6-year-old daughters in a drainage ditch near their home and then cast herself into the waters beside them.

The husband and father found the three bodies in three feet of water upon his return at night from a neighboring village.

Domestic difficulties were said to have prompted Mrs. Swanson to the act. She and her husband have lived apart several times during the eight years of their married life.

FRANCE, BRITAIN IN COMPROMISE ON DISARMAMENT

BRITAIN HAD PROPOSED TO LIMIT ONLY NUMBER OF AIRPLANES

FRANCE HAD SUGGESTED THAT ONLY TOTAL HORSEPOWER SHOULD BE LIMITED

Geneva, April 4.—(UP)—France and Britain today reached their first important compromise on disarmament when, upon the suggestion of the United States, Germany, Sweden and others, representatives of the two countries agreed to combine two of their divergent programs for aerial limitation into one thesis.

Britain had proposed to limit only the number of airplanes and France had proposed that only the total horsepower should be limited. They decided that both should be limited.

Paris, April 4.—The French reply to President Coolidge's second invitation to discuss further limitation of naval armament at Geneva has been handed to United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, the United Press was informed today.

The reply, as indicated in the United Press dispatches Saturday, explained that owing to the uncertainty of the disarmament situation at Geneva, where the League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission now is in session, France must defer a definite decision. Mr. Coolidge's second invitation suggested that France might be able to send an observer to the proposed conference even if she were unable to participate more fully. A similar invitation was sent Italy and has not yet been rejected or accepted.

Great Britain and Japan accepted the invitation to meet at Geneva.

KNIFE DUEL BETWEEN TWO AGED INMATES

San Francisco, April 4.—(UP)—A knife duel between two aged inmates of a relief home over the possession of an old tin bucket brought an inquest over the body of one today while the other fights for his life in a hospital.

John Wilson, 71, is dead and Tom Harvey, 77, is wounded seriously as a result of the fight at the relief home yesterday.

"Wilson came running up to me and yelled for me to give him his bucket," Harvey said in explaining the fight. "I told him it was mine but he pulled out a pocket knife and started stabbing at me. I got out my knife and fought him back."

MINERS' LEADERS CLAIM SUSPENSION TO BE 100 PER CENT

OPERATORS SAY A NUMBER OF UNION MINERS WILL DESERT RANKS

NEITHER OPERATORS NOR MINERS MAKE A MOTION OVER THE WEEK-END

By GERALD P. OVERTON (United Press Staff Correspondent)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 4.—(UP)—Full scope of the general suspension in the bituminous coal fields of the central competitive district probably will be known today.

Leaders point out that today is the first full work day since the general suspension—brought about over disagreement of wage scale—has gone into effect. Miners' leaders claim the suspension will be 100 per cent, while operators say a number of union miners will desert the ranks and go back to work.

Neither operators nor miners made a motion over the week-end.

Several miners' mass meetings were held throughout the vast bituminous districts and the word went out for the miners to stand by and not recede from their demands for retention of the Jacksonville wage agreement. This agreement, which expired March 31, provides about $7.50 per day.

It is estimated that between 170,000 and 200,000 miners are out of work as result of the general suspension.

Both operators and miners today planned a careful check on the number of men who might attempt to return to work in fields where the operators are considering keeping their mines open. Pittsburgh field is the largest of these.

Through Indiana and southern Illinois most mine operators have ordered their mines closed pending a settlement of the wage question.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 4.—A crowd of about 350 striking coal miners was ordered to "move along" by state police when they gathered at the Gallatin mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Co., near Monacahele today, according to Corporal G. F. Pierce, in charge of a detail at North Belle Vernon.

The union men had formed a line along the road which divides the property of the non-union mine just as the miners were going to work.

Union officials held a long conference with Robert H. Braun, sheriff of Allegheny county, today. They said they charged that union pickets had been unjustly ordered off public highways in several instances, although their behavior was orderly. Braun promised to investigate the matter fully.

NEW DEFINITION OF JUST WHAT IS NEWS MATTER

Fairfield, Ia., April 4.—(UP)—Enter a new definition of just what is news. When a mule pulls an automobile out of the mud in Iowa, that isn't news—unless the automobile happens to belong to a celebrity.

But when an automobile pulls a mule—better still, a span of Missouri mules—out of an Iowa mudhole, that assuredly is news.

A truck performed the service for a span of Eclipse Lumber company canaries that wandered off the end of Burlington street here.

COLEMAN RENAMED TO STATE BOARD OF CONTROL

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—Gov. Theodore Christianson today reappointed John Coleman, Anoka, a member of the State Board of Control for a six year term.

Coleman for many years was superintendent of the Anoka state asylum for the insane.

PRES. COOLIDGE STRONGLY SUPPORTS BIBLE TEACHINGS

Washington, April 4.—(UP)—President Coolidge was on record today as a strong supporter of the Bible.

"Foundations of American society and government rest so much on the teachings of the Bible," he said, "that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings should cease to be practically universal in our country."

The president's statement was made in the form of a letter read before the Bible class of the Church of Epiphany here.

KING FERDINAND EXTREMELY WEAK, HAS INFLUENZA

REPORTS PERSIST THAT PRINCE CAROL IS ENROUTE TO HIS FATHER

POLITICS BREWING SHOULD THE KING SUCCEED TO ILLNESS

Bucharest, April 3.—(Delayed by Censor)—(UP)—King Ferdinand of Roumania was extremely weak this afternoon (Sunday), reports from the palace said. The king is ill with influenza.

Despite official denials, reports persisted here today that Prince Carol was in Belgrade en route here to see his father.

Paris, April 4.—Prince Carol, former heir to the throne of Roumania, was reported today to have received word from Bucharest that the royal family was not alarmed by King Ferdinand's condition, and police reported the prince was still in Paris.

Guards at Carol's suburban villa, where he lives with Mme. Lupescu, for whom he renounced his rights to the throne, also said the prince had not left for Bucharest by airplane, as had been reported.

General Averesco has concentrated troops at strategic points in Roumania, preparing for a coup if the king dies, and Jean Bratiano organized a political and military counter attack, according to a special dispatch from Bucharest to the newspaper, Le Matin.

Berlin, April 4.—The special Bucharest correspondent of the Zeitung Am Mittag today telegraphed a sensational story to his paper in which he said that King Ferdinand of Roumania was suffering from cancer of the lungs, and that his serious condition had been described as gripe in official statements.

The dispatch was telegraphed from a point outside Roumania to escape the Roumanian censorship. Strict control is being maintained today along the Roumanian frontier, the dispatch said. Tourists were forbidden to carry newspapers into Roumania and the provincial press was forbidden even to mention the king's illness. Bucharest papers, the dispatch said, printed Thursday's official bulletin yesterday.

CONSIDERED ONE OF STATE'S MORAL OBLIGATIONS

CLAIMED THAT $2,064,160 IS THE TOTAL DUE VARIOUS COUNTIES

THERE ARE ALSO $2,500,000 CLAIMS FOR DEFICIENCY SCHOOL AID

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—Payment of $1,500,000 mothers' pensions, due counties from the state appeared likely today, according to A. J. Rockne, Zumbrota, chairman of the senate finance committee.

Rockne declared that the committee had virtually reached an agreement on the payment of the state's "moral obligations."

The announcement followed a meeting of eight administration and eight anti-administration members seeking to compromise on appropriations.

Total claims against the state under the mothers' pension law are $2,064,160. These, with the $2,500,000 claims for deficiency school aid, will make about $4,500,000 to be cared for under Sen. Rockne's "moral obligations."

Present plans call for leaving the deficiency school aid appropriations out of the educational appropriations bill at this session of the legislature, and paying them through the issuance of certificates of indebtedness coming due in 1931.

Another bill is said ready for presentation which would provide that in future cases where legislative appropriations shall be paid pro rata and the sum so paid shall be regarded as a full payment.

On the mothers' pension claims, like certificates of indebtedness would be issued, and a new law passed providing that hereafter the state shall not be liable for pension payments made by the counties.

Decision on the proposed investigation of the state securities commission was said to have been reached by the senate rules committee.

Although no announcement of the decision was made it became known that Sen. Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls, was given responsibility for the drafting of the investigation resolution which will be presented to the upper chamber Tuesday.

RECORDS OF U. S. SENATE PROBE ARE INTRODUCED

TOM DAVIS, ATTORNEY FOR THE BLIND SENATOR, ACTS IN MATTER

CLAIM HATE RATHER THAN JUSTICE PROMPTED INVESTIGATION

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—Records of the United States senate investigation of Sen. Thomas D. Schall's election were introduced today in the state senate probe of the same election.

Tom Davis, attorney for the blind senator, had introduced into the testimony a statement made by Schall in the national probe which attempted to prove that those responsible for the investigations were prompted by hate rather than by justice.

A. N. Jacobs, former Schall worker, resumed the place on the witness stand which he has held almost without interruption since the beginning of the hearing.

Davis attempted to show that Jacobs appropriated most of the Schall campaign funds for his own use.

In the cross examination Davis sought to show that Jacobs spent $367 on taxi fares and that he rented an apartment for Louise C. Neely, his secretary, and that on the whole, he benefited directly from most of the funds contributed.

Jacobs denied that he had talked with Lieut. Gov. W. I. Nolan in regard to the appointment of United States District Attorney Lafayette French although a telegram from Jacobs to Schall was introduced to show that Jacobs asked Schall to "do something" about the appointment.

The former campaign manager denied that he knew E. W. Backus, named by Schall as one of those responsible for the hearing, but admitted that Schall "had a good deal to do" with the Backus-Brooks Lumber Co. payment of back taxes amounting to more than $3,000,000.

Davis also read into the records testimony given by Frank Cornealy, another campaign worker, at the Washington hearings. One of the statements was that "several prominent Minnesota people are out to get" Sen. Schall.

Cornealy had named Alex Casswell and State Sen. W. H. Brooks, Minneapolis, and another person whose name the court reporter apparently had failed to catch.

"I know who he meant," Schall cried, rising. "He meant Governor Theodore Christianson."

PROHIBITION IS ABOLISHED BY THE NORWEGIANS

Oslo, April 4.—(UP)—Prohibition was formally abolished by the storting today when a bill to remove the ban on spirits was adopted. A plebiscite recently showed a majority for the measure.

In 1917, Norway prohibited the importation, transportation and sale of spirits and wine containing more than 12 per cent of alcohol. In 1919 the permanent prohibition of spirits was approved in a referendum vote of 353,567 to 304,673. A government bill for the repeal of prohibition was defeated in both houses in July, 1924. The new government put the question to the voters in October, 1926, and the repeal of prohibition was carried by a vote of 531,425 to 421,292.

FRANCE, BRITAIN IN COMPROMISE ON DISARMAMENT

BRITAIN HAD PROPOSED TO LIMIT ONLY NUMBER OF AIRPLANES

FRANCE HAD SUGGESTED THAT ONLY TOTAL HORSEPOWER SHOULD BE LIMITED

Geneva, April 4.—(UP)—France and Britain today reached their first important compromise on disarmament when, upon the suggestion of the United States, Germany, Sweden and others, representatives of the two countries agreed to combine two of their divergent programs for aerial limitation into one thesis.

Britain had proposed to limit only the number of airplanes and France had proposed that only the total horsepower should be limited. They decided that both should be limited.

Paris, April 4.—The French reply to President Coolidge's second invitation to discuss further limitation of naval armament at Geneva has been handed to United States Ambassador Myron T. Herrick, the United Press was informed today.

The reply, as indicated in the United Press dispatches Saturday, explained that owing to the uncertainty of the disarmament situation at Geneva, where the League of Nations preparatory disarmament commission now is in session, France must defer a definite decision. Mr. Coolidge's second invitation suggested that France might be able to send an observer to the proposed conference even if she were unable to participate more fully. A similar invitation was sent Italy and has not yet been rejected or accepted.

Great Britain and Japan accepted the invitation to meet at Geneva.

Miners' leaders claim the suspension will be 100 per cent, while operators say a number of union miners will desert the ranks and go back to work.

Neither operators nor miners made a motion over the week-end.

Several miners' mass meetings were held throughout the vast bituminous districts and the word went out for the miners to stand by and not recede from their demands for retention of the Jacksonville wage agreement. This agreement, which expired March 31, provides about $7.50 per day.

It is estimated that between 170,000 and 200,000 miners are out of work as result of the general suspension.

Both operators and miners today planned a careful check on the number of men who might attempt to return to work in fields where the operators are considering keeping their mines open. Pittsburgh field is the largest of these.

Through Indiana and southern Illinois most mine operators have ordered their mines closed pending a settlement of the wage question.

Pittsburgh, Pa., April 4.—A crowd of about 350 striking coal miners was ordered to "move along" by state police when they gathered at the Gallatin mine of the Pittsburgh Coal Co., near Monaca, today, according to Corporal G. F. Pierce, in charge of a detail at North Belle Vernon.

The union men had formed a line along the road which divides the property of the non-union mine just as the miners were going to work.

Union officials held a long conference with Robert H. Braun, sheriff of Allegheny county, today. They said they charged that union pickets had been unjustly ordered off public highways in several instances, although their behavior was orderly. Braun promised to investigate the matter fully.

NEW DEFINITION OF JUST WHAT IS NEWS MATTER

Fairfield, Ia., April 4.—(UP)—Enter a new definition of just what is news. When a mule pulls an automobile out of the mud in Iowa, that isn't news—unless the automobile happens to belong to a celebrity.

But when an automobile pulls a mule—better still, a span of Missouri mules—out of an Iowa mudhole, that assuredly, is news.

A truck performed the service for a span of Eclipse Lumber company canaries that wandered off the end of Burlington street here.

COLEMAN RENAMED TO STATE BOARD OF CONTROL

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—Gov. Theodore Christianson today reappointed John Coleman, Anoka, a member of the State Board of Control for a six year term.

Coleman for many years was superintendent of the Anoka state asylum for the insane.

PRES. COOLIDGE STRONGLY SUPPORTS BIBLE TEACHINGS

Washington, April 4.—(UP)—President Coolidge was on record today as a strong supporter of the Bible.

"Foundations of American society and government rest so much on the teachings of the Bible," he said, "that it would be difficult to support them if faith in these teachings should cease to be practically universal in our country."

The president's statement was made in the form of a letter read before the Bible class of the Church of Epiphany here.

KING FERDINAND EXTREMELY WEAK, HAS INFLUENZA

REPORTS PERSIST THAT PRINCE CAROL IS ENROUTE TO HIS FATHER

POLITICS BREWING SHOULD THE KING SUCCEED TO ILLNESS

Bucharest, April 3.—(Delayed by Censor)—(UP)—King Ferdinand of Roumania was extremely weak this afternoon (Sunday), reports from the palace said. The king is ill with influenza.

Despite official denials, reports persisted here today that Prince Carol was in Belgrade en route here to see his father.

Paris, April 4.—Prince Carol, former heir to the throne of Roumania, was reported today to have received word from Bucharest that the royal family was not alarmed by King Ferdinand's condition, and police reported the prince was still in Paris.

Guards at Carol's suburban villa, where he lives with Mme. Lupescu, for whom he renounced his rights to the throne, also said the prince had not left for Bucharest by airplane, as had been reported.

General Averesco has concentrated troops at strategic points in Roumania, preparing for a coup if the king dies, and Jean Bratiano organized a political and military counter attack, according to a special dispatch from Bucharest to the newspaper, Le Matin.

Berlin, April 4.—The special Bucharest correspondent of the Zeitung Am Mittag today telegraphed a sensational story to his paper in which he said that King Ferdinand of Roumania was suffering from cancer of the lungs, and that his serious condition had been described as gripe in official statements.

The dispatch was telegraphed from a point outside Roumania to escape the Roumanian censorship. Strict control is being maintained today along the Roumanian frontier, the dispatch said. Tourists were forbidden to carry newspapers into Roumania and the provincial press was forbidden even to mention the king's illness. Bucharest papers, the dispatch said, printed Thursday's official bulletin yesterday.

CONSIDERED ONE OF STATE'S MORAL OBLIGATIONS

CLAIMED THAT $2,064,160 IS THE TOTAL DUE VARIOUS COUNTIES

THERE ARE ALSO $2,500,000 CLAIMS FOR DEFICIENCY SCHOOL AID

St. Paul, April 4.—(UP)—Payment of $1,500,000 mothers' pensions, due counties from the state appeared likely today, according to A. J. Rockne, Zumbrota, chairman of the senate finance committee.

Rockne declared that the committee had virtually reached an agreement on the payment of the state's "moral obligations."

The announcement followed a meeting of eight administration and eight anti-administration members seeking to compromise on appropriations.

Total claims against the state under the mothers' pension law are $2,064,160. These, with the $2,500,000 claims for deficiency school aid, will make about $4,500,000 to be cared for under Sen. Rockne's "moral obligations."

Present plans call for leaving the deficiency school aid appropriations out of the educational appropriations bill at this session of the legislature, and paying them through the issuance of certificates of indebtedness coming due in 1931.

Another bill is said ready for presentation which would provide that in future cases where legislative appropriations shall be paid pro rata and the sum so paid shall be regarded as a full payment.

On the mothers' pension claims, like certificates of indebtedness would be issued, and a new law passed providing that hereafter the state shall not be liable for pension payments made by the counties.

Decision on the proposed investigation of the state securities commission was said to have been reached by the senate rules committee.

Although no announcement of the decision was made it became known that Sen. Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls, was given responsibility for the drafting of the investigation resolution which will be presented to the upper chamber Tuesday.

SOPRANO WAILS SHE NEVER LEARNED TO SLEEP IN PULLMAN

Minneapolis, April 4.—(UP)—"Eight years of it, and never have I learned to sleep in a Pullman," Rosa Ponselle, soprano, wailed as she arrived in the Twin Cities for a concert today. "It's always roll and toss the whole night through, and then weariness until I can catch up sleep in a stationary bed," the singer complained.

TWO BANDITS ROB BANK; GET AWAY WITH $25,000

Superior, Neb., April 4.—(UP)—After holding customers at bay for thirty minutes while waiting for the cashier to return from lunch to unlock the vault two heavily armed bandits this afternoon robbed the Farmers State bank here and escaped with $25,000. When Lloyd Doerfma, assistant cashier, returned from lunch, the bandits were holding J. R. Parson, president of the bank, and seven customers at bay, forcing Doerfma to unlock the vault and step away in a waiting automobile.

DEPARTMENT STORE OWNER FALLS DOWN STAIRS; IS KILLED

Omaha, Neb., April 4.—(UP)—Leslie Black, 82, wealthy department store owner of Fargo, N. D., was killed Sunday in a fall down the basement stairs at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Paul F. Bunce.

Black was visiting here on his return from a winter's vacation in San Diego and Los Angeles. He was founder of department stores in Red Oak, Ia.; Parsons, Kan., and Minneapolis, Minn.

How the Bank Takes Orders
from
Its Depositors

Every check written by our depositors is an order on the bank to pay money to someone.

When you write a few words and figures on a slip of paper and sign your name, the bank does the rest. It does all the work, goes to all the expense, and never sends you a bill for the service rendered.

The bank is supposed to "get its pay" from the use of part of your money during the time when you are not using it yourself and have left it on deposit in the bank for safe-keeping.

But if you and other depositors keep drawing nearly all of this money out, then the bank is going to be "out."

It will have been forced to work for no pay. And no bank, no business, or no man can afford to do that.

Different Lumber for Different Uses
Get the Right Kind for Your Use

The man who has studied the subject of coal will very quickly tell you that some coals are immensely more valuable than others, even when they look alike, for the simple reason that some coals contain a greater amount of heat units than others. In the same way, the man who knows about lumber can very quickly explain to you why some lumbers are more valuable and more adaptable than other lumbers for certain uses, even though the average observer would never detect any difference between the two.

Not only is this true as between species of woods, but it is equally true as between grades of lumber of the same species of wood.

We know lumber. We know grades. And we are here to see that you get the necessary information and satisfactory service from the lumber that you buy—that what you get is properly adapted to the use to which you will put it so as to render you the greatest value and the greatest economy.

How the Bank Takes Orders from Its Depositors

Every check written by our depositors is an order on the bank to pay money to someone.

When you write a few words and figures on a slip of paper and sign your name, the bank does the rest. It does all the work, goes to all the expense, and never sends you a bill for the service rendered.

The bank is supposed to "get its pay" from the use of part of your money during the time when you are not using it yourself and have left it on deposit in the bank for safe-keeping.

But if you and other depositors keep drawing nearly all of this money out, then the bank is going to be "out." It will have been forced to work for no pay. And no bank, no business, or no man can afford to do that.

Theodore Ritch of Chicago Civic Opera Company Gives Recital

AUSPICES MUSICAL CLUB

Has an Incomparable Tenor Voice—
Accompanist, Miss Engler,
Also Pleading

The musical season of the Brainerd Musical club ended yesterday in a blaze of glory when Theodore Ritch of the Chicago Civic Opera Company gave his program. His incomparable tenor voice shifted from deep, full throated, passionate notes to liquid trills and long drawn out tones so high and sweet to the end that one marvelled at his control. He was at all times so thoroughly master of his voice and emotions that the difficulty of language was negligible, for the voice in its shifting cadences gave every fleeting mood. The songs he sang were none of them the popular arias from grand opera by which so many singers impress their audiences, but a series of songs, all too short, which gave him as great an opportunity to demonstrate his beautiful voice and his knowledge of technique as any more elaborate program could have done.

The audience was so very appreciative that he responded with a number of encores, two of which, Donna Mobile and The Volga Boatman, gave him an even greater opportunity to use his glorious voice. The Volga Boatman was sung so beautifully and with such depth of feeling that one had only to shut his eyes to fancy himself listening to a full throated choir. If the club can get him another year, Brainerd will indeed be fortunate.

Margaret Engler, who has pleased us before, accompanied him in her usual charming and accomplished manner, and in addition played a group of piano selections that pleased everyone. She has a delicate touch and mastery of the instrument that added very materially to the pleasure of the afternoon. The added difficulty of having the club piano moved to the theatre was thoroughly worth while in giving the final touch to the perfection of the concert.

Street Committee Chairman Explains Work
To the Citizens of Brainerd:
As Chairman of the Street Committee of the City Council, I desire to advise that our Committee has gone as far as street improvements as the street and sewer fund would permit without an increase in taxes; considering the fact that we had access only to horses and a six foot grader blade which required the use of two men and made the operation very slow as well as expensive; however we are now trying out motorized street equipment which consists of a One Man Power Grader, with a ten to fourteen foot blade, which develops thirty brake horse power and will travel as fast as is feasible to operate a blade; this equipment if purchased by the City Council I think will permit the reconditioning and grading of all the streets in the City without an increase in taxes.

CO-ED RELEASED FROM S. D. PRISON

HAD ATTEMPTED TO ROB BANK TO GET MONEY FOR COLLEGE

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 4.—(UP)—Miss Marian Meyers, University of South Dakota co-ed, who attempted to rob a bank to get money for college, was released from prison here today.

The 19-year-old student completed her 30-day sentence in the penitentiary here Sunday, but overstayed her time, unable to obtain a train until today. She was uncertain about her plans for the future.

The girl stole tools from an automobile repair shop and attempted to rob the First National Bank of Vermillion, S. D., almost two months ago. A watchman captured her.

'ANGEL' OF SHOW

ON 'THE LADDER'

New York, April 4.—(UP)—For perhaps the first time in Broadway's history, tickets were being sold today for a play on a money-refunded-if-not-satisfied basis.

The "angel" of the show, Edward B. Davis, is a millionaire oil man of Texas. To date he has already spent more than $325,000 on "The Ladder," which has been a consistent box office failure since it began its run in the Walford theatre last September. Davis is interested in spreading the doctrine of reincarnation, with which this play deals.

MOB ATTEMPTED VENGEANCE ON FANATIC AT LILLE

Paris, April 4.—(UP)—A mob attempted to take summary vengeance on a fanatic who tried to attack President Doumergue at Lille after a war celebration yesterday.

The fanatic approached the French president muttering revolutionary oaths. Police stopped him before he could harm Doumergue, but had difficulty keeping him away from the crowd.

The president had just dedicated the new town hall at Lille, replacing the structure destroyed by the Germans during the war.

"CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY"

CONCERNED over the increase that took place in 1926 compared with 1925 in the number of highway grade crossing accidents and believing that more care should be exercised by all those crossing railroad tracks, the American Railway Association has announced plans for a nation-wide essay contest among school and college students with three cash prizes of $250 each, to be awarded the authors of essays containing an outstanding, readily available suggestion for preventing such accidents.

One prize of $250 will be awarded by the American Railway Association for the best essay by a grammar student, a similar prize for the best essay by a high school student and a like amount for the best essay by a college student.

Under the rules prescribed by the American Railway Association, the subject of the essay is to be "Cross Crossings Cautiously" and each essay is to be limited to 250 words.

The essays must be terse, logical and constructive and must stress the need for greater care in approaching and passing over railroad crossings.

The essays must be terse, logical and constructive and must be Safety Section of the American Railway Association at 30 Vesey Street, New York City, by not later than June 1. Three persons of national reputation to be selected later will act as judges.

Under the plan, class teachers in both grammar and high schools will select the best essays from their classes and transmit them to their principal who will then select the best one from that school and send it to the Superintendent of Schools for the county or an equivalent officer. The county Superintendent will then select the best essay written by a grammar student and the best one written by a high school student in his county and will transmit them to the American Railway Association. Colleges may follow the same procedure except that each college or university, through its proper officer, may select one essay and transmit direct to the American Railway Association.

In 1926, there were 5,921 highway grade crossing accidents in which 2,492 persons were killed and 6,991 injured. In 1925, there were 5,479 accidents in which 2,206 persons were killed and 6,555 injured. Owing to the increase that is constantly taking place in the number of automobiles in use, the hazard from such accidents is annually becoming greater. Only through the co-operation of the public and the railroads can a reduction in such accidents be brought about, in view of the fact the complete elimination of highway grade crossings is impossible, not only because of the time that would be involved but also because of the prohibitive cost which ultimately falls on the public.

KNUTSON BACKS DAIRY TARIFF

At the annual meeting of the East Side Farmers' Cooperative creamery, as recorded in the Little Falls Daily Transcript, a discussion of a question that has far reaching importance on the dairy industry of Minnesota and the entire country was started, namely, the question of the importation of cream from foreign countries.

Resolutions were drafted and ordered sent to Congressman Harold Knutson, supporting the law preventing the importation of dairy products from Canada in the form of cream or cream laden butter.

In his letter to Samuel Hammerbeck, Congressman Knutson wrote:

"On my return to Washington from a short trip to Minnesota I find awaiting me a communication from the Morrison County Farm Bureau to which was attached your name, calling attention to the insufficiency of the present tariff rate on cream and milk, and also to the large quantities of cream now being shipped in from Canada.

"In reply let me call your attention to the fact that congress last winter passed the so-called Tabor Milk and Cream bill, which would have absolutely stopped importations from Canada and from other countries, but I am sorry to report that the appropriations to carry this law into effect failed in the senate with a number of other meritorious measures on account of the filibuster in that body.

"I will call upon the president today with regard to this matter, and also expect to take it up with the tariff commission within the next few days."

THE VALUE OF WINTER SNOW REMOVAL

THE value of winter snow removal is revealed not alone in winter time, but in the early spring breakup when a snow cleared road dries out quickly. We motored Sunday to Pequot and found that the Tarvia section, Brainerd to Nisswa, came through the winter fairly well.

The gravel road from Nisswa to Pequot is in fine shape and so is the road running eastward to Brezy Point. Many cars were out, the thermometer indicated 42 degrees, and motoring in either closed or open cars was a pleasure indeed.

Summer cottages and resorts were visited where possible, although one found that shady woods harbored ice and snow patches and that roadways there were occasionally deeply rutted in mud.

A regular highway, cleaned of snow, kept in good condition by county or state, responds to good treatment and insures the best of driving.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT has well said that "as a matter of course every man ought to have a wife and children dependent upon him. If he has, he ought to provide for their future. If he is dependent upon a salary or income which will terminate with his life, it is peculiarly incumbent upon him to insure that life for the benefit of his wife and children so that they may not be left penniless."

SMALL towns continue to gain enterprises if citizens are active. For instance, at Detroit Lakes, the Madison Silo company of Winona has leased property on which it will start construction of a silo factory to serve the northwestern section of the state. The factory will be the eighth branch plant established by the company. It will employ 15 people.

A GROWING demand for farm land at fair prices is being reported throughout the state. With soil conditions in Minnesota in excellent shape for crops this spring, we have something to show the prospective purchaser.

"Dora's Delight,"
a Bungalow

By RUBY DOUGLAS

(Copyright.)

DORA was always the little sister of the family and, probably, as such, had been a trifle pampered. At least, somehow or other, she had acquired the habit of getting whatever she wanted out of life.

The particular thing Dora coveted at present was a bungalow on the Connecticut river on the New Hampshire side. She had seen it first from a canoe in which she was being paddled by an adoring young man. It had appealed to her as being the most homey, most comfortable, most artistic summer cottage she had ever seen. Subsequently, she had seen it when ever she had been spending her college holidays in Vermont with her grandparents. She had even discovered who owned it and was now quietly laying plans to make their acquaintance.

Dora's grandmother was one of the members of the family who had helped to spoil Dora. Therefore, in a very determined but quiet way she decided that if her grandchild wanted that bungalow and it was possible to have it, she should.

"And what would you do with it, once you had acquired it, my dear?" she asked Dora.

"I'd have a very small and very exclusive girls' camp. A camp where girls would never get homesick. I have had a picture of it in my mind ever since I, myself, went to a camp that was not any of these things. I wonder how I can get that bungalow?"

Grandmother's eyes danced. "What would you give me for some very favorable news about it, Dora?"

"A hug and a kiss—and I'd make you Charleston with me if you would. Please—please, grandmother, tell me."

"It belongs to a family in Brattleboro that has gone there so many summers that the joy has worn off. They would be glad to sell it. I have written to your father to come at once and look into it."

"Oh, grandmother, do you think he will?"

"With his mother and his favorite baby wishing it—of course he will," said the elderly woman, confidently.

And thus it was that Dora became the possessor of the bungalow by the river. She named it "Dora's Delight."

Her first visit to it as her own was a big event. She asked some school friends and they spent a week getting it into shape, making plans, sewing curtains, painting, papering and generally beautifying the somewhat neglected interior.

Two of the girls promised to help her with the first season's camp merely for the pleasure of spending the summer in so romantic a spot. A canoe and a flat-bottom boat had been acquired with the property and the milkman across the river and the rural postman were soon aware of the fact that there were young people at the bungalow.

Dora's charge to the girls who were to come to her camp for a month was very low for she had managed to get her grandmother to promise all the vegetables and fruits from her farm for nothing.

One day after Dora had driven her little roadster through the narrow, wooded path on the New Hampshire side of the river and across the old covered bridge to her grandmother's house she found a strange visitor on the porch.

Dora's grandmother was within and she beckoned, behind the man's back, to the girl.

"What's the mystery, grandmother?" asked Dora, kissing her.

"That is Mr. Landon. He has a little girl seven years old. His wife is dead. He wants to send Jean to your camp and—she is too young to fit in with your plans."

"There is no age limit—in my camp, I'd love to have her."

"Come out," said her grandmother. "We'll talk it over."

Dora felt at once a warm sympathy for the big man who took her hand in such friendly grip when the elderly woman introduced him.

"But—I'd love to have your little Jean," she said. "We will take the best of care of her."

Almost an hour passed before arrangements were completed. It was agreed that the father should bring his small daughter to Dora's on the following Saturday.

The little one proved to be a sunny young person with a wistful look in her eyes that seemed to tell the story of her early loss.

Whether Fate was just carrying out the habit of Dora's family in always letting her have what she wanted or not, no one can say, but the camp proved to be all that its owner expected of it in the way of a harmonious and happy place for the girls and grownups. It did not pay a great deal, but that was not the object.

Dora was happier than she had ever been before. Little by little, she was learning that the companionship of Jean's father was one of the things she must have.

Fortunately, the big man felt the same way and he obtained Dora's promise to marry him—sometime—and in return, he agreed to keep her camp for her, inasmuch as it was the medium through which they had met.

"It shall always be yours even though you may not actually run it, yourself, dear," he told her. "We shall keep it as a reminder to make others happy in return for our dis-

NO PERSONAL FEAR
IN MANGIN'S NATURE

French General Ready to Accept Any Risk.

With a view to raising the army morale the late Gen. Charles Mangin was constantly pushing his headquarters forward on a line with the divisional commands. The Germans had hardly left Soissons before he moved to a chateau in the suburbs within range of the enemy's guns. They could have blown the place to pieces in 20 minutes.

The chief of staff and the heads of the bureau protested that it was no place for clerks and typists, much less officers at desks. But they wasted their breath. Mangin said that it was best to be there and that nothing unpleasant would happen. One morning a nine-inch shell dropped near the gate, but no one was hurt.

Again as the Germans left Laon he moved into a house at the foot of the hill under the town. The countryside was planted with mines whose fuses were arranged for delayed explosions. For nearly two weeks these blew up at odd times under cross roads and in buildings.

Mangin installed himself without waiting for engineers to examine the premises, and again the staff was in a state of mind. The first evening during dinner a mine went off close by, rocked the house, and sprayed the room with broken window glass. Mangin was talking at the time. He paused, motioned to Baba, his tall Senegalese orderly, to sweep up the pieces, and went on.

Afterward Rochembert, his aide, said laughingly: "If it had been us instead of the windows it would have been just the same. He would have had Baba sweep us into his pail."

All this was a standard of military conduct. Brutality, however, was foreign to his nature. His treatment of prisoners was invariably humane and considerate. He shrank from ordering punishments and executions.

In the autumn an escaping prisoner was caught in the front lines in a French uniform. The lieutenant who caught him sent him back to army headquarters. Mangin sent for the lieutenant.

"Why didn't you shoot him when you caught him?" he demanded. "I don't want him." He told the story at dinner and added hopelessly: "And now what am I going to do with him? Of course I ought to shoot him, but the poor devil had no intention of being a spy. He only wanted to escape." As a matter of fact he did not shoot him but sent him to the rear, and I suspect the man went back to Germany.—David Gray in Century Magazine.

Writers Helped Each Other

Thomas Carlyle and Ralph Waldo Emerson each was aware of the genius in the other but they had difficulties in getting the public to accept their works. They helped each other, however, Emerson bringing about the early publications of Carlyle's essays in this country, and Carlyle arranging for the first edition of Emerson's that was published in England. After trying for years to find a publisher for "The French Revolution," Carlyle wrote to Emerson:

"I have given up the notion of hawking my little manuscript book any further; for a long time it has lain quiet in its drawer, waiting for a better day. Sad fate! to serve the devil and get no wages even from him."—Mentor Magazine.

Divorce in Birdland

A blow has been struck at the belief that birds choose their mates for life and are free from the evils of divorce by a ten-years' study of bird habits.

The birds that were observed were household wrens, which usually raise two broods of young birds each year. Instead of the bird family persisting from year to year, or even through a single season, the parent birds were found to change mates between the two broods of one year.

The mating lasts only during the time the young birds are helpless. After that each parent feels quite free to make whatever new arrangement may seem desirable.

Magazine for Blind

As a result of special presses and other apparatus developed by a blind man, persons who suffer a similar affliction are able to enjoy a monthly magazine. Its first appearance was so successful that it has now been increased to 60 pages and has national circulation, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. For the first time in their lives many blind subscribers have been able to read advertisements and other matter common to the usual publication. Heretofore most of their reading matter has been limited to books, and in some localities few of these have been obtainable. The magazine is printed in raised characters.

"Dodging" Raindrops

The old joke about dodging the raindrops had some foundation, after all. If you go fast enough you can dodge 'em, say aviators of the United States army air corps at McCook field, Dayton, Ohio.

A pilot riding in the open cockpit of a plane through a heavy rainstorm will not get wet, the fliers say. But he does not ride between the drops. The speed of the plane produces such a rush of wind about the ship that the rain is carried backward instead of falling upon it.

"CROSS CROSSINGS CAUTIOUSLY"

CONCERNED over the increase that took place in 1926 compared with 1925 in the number of highway grade crossing accidents and believing that more care should be exercised by all those crossing railroad tracks, the American Railway Association has announced plans for a nation-wide essay contest among school and college students with three cash prizes of $250 each, to be awarded the authors of essays containing an outstanding, readily available suggestion for preventing such accidents.

One prize of $250 will be awarded by the American Railway Association for the best essay by a grammar student, a similar prize for the best essay by a high school student and a like amount for the best essay by a college student.

Under the rules prescribed by the American Railway Association, the subject of the essay is to be "Cross Crossings Cautiously" and each essay is to be limited to 250 words.

The essays must be terse, logical and constructive and must stress the need for greater care in approaching and passing over railroad crossings.

The essays must be terse, logical and constructive and must Safety Section of the American Railway Association at 30 Vesey Street, New York City, by not later than June 1. Three persons of national reputation to be selected later will act as judges.

Under the plan, class teachers in both grammar and high schools will select the best essays from their classes and transmit them to their principal who will then select the best one from that school and send it to the Superintendent of Schools for the county or an equivalent officer. The county Superintendent will then select the best essay written by a grammar student and the best one written by a high school student in his county and will transmit them to the American Railway Association. Colleges may follow the same procedure except that each college or university, through its proper officer, may select one essay and transmit direct to the American Railway Association.

In 1926, there were 5,921 highway grade crossing accidents in which 2,492 persons were killed and 6,991 injured. In 1925, there were 5,479 accidents in which 2,206 persons were killed and 6,555 injured. Owing to the increase that is constantly taking place in the number of automobiles in use, the hazard from such accidents is annually becoming greater. Only through the co-operation of the public and the railroads can a reduction in such accidents be brought about, in view of the fact the complete elimination of highway grade crossings is impossible, not only because of the time that would be involved but also because of the prohibitive cost which ultimately falls on the public.

KNUTSON BACKS DAIRY TARIFF

At the annual meeting of the East Side Farmers' Cooperative creamery, as recorded in the Little Falls Daily Transcript, a discussion of a question that has far reaching importance on the dairy industry of Minnesota and the entire country was started, namely, the question of the importation of cream from foreign countries.

Resolutions were drafted and ordered sent to Congressman Harold Knutson, supporting the law preventing the importation of dairy products from Canada in the form of cream or cream laden butter.

In his letter to Samuel Hammerbeck, Congressman Knutson wrote:

"On my return to Washington from a short trip to Minnesota I find awaiting me a communication from the Morrison County Farm Bureau to which was attached your name, calling attention to the insufficiency of the present tariff rate on cream and milk, and also to the large quantities of cream now being shipped in from Canada.

"In reply let me call your attention to the fact that congress last winter passed the so-called Tabor Milk and Cream bill, which would have absolutely stopped importations from Canada and from other countries, but I am sorry to report that the appropriations to carry this law into effect failed in the senate with a number of other meritorious measures on account of the filibuster in that body.

"I will call upon the president today with regard to this matter, and also expect to take it up with the tariff commission within the next few days."

THE VALUE OF WINTER SNOW REMOVAL

THE value of winter snow removal is revealed not alone in winter time, but in the early spring breakup when a snow cleared road dries out quickly. We motored Sunday to Pequot and found that the Tarvia section, Brainerd to Nisswa, came through the winter fairly well.

The gravel road from Nisswa to Pequot is in fine shape and so is the road running eastward to Breezy Point. Many cars were out, the thermometer indicated 42 degrees, and motoring in either closed or open cars was a pleasure indeed.

Summer cottages and resorts were visited where possible, although one found that shady woods harbored ice and snow patches and that roadways there were occasionally deeply rutted in mud.

A regular highway, cleaned of snow, kept in good condition by county or state, responds to good treatment and insures the best of driving.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT has well said that "as a matter of course every man ought to have a wife and children dependent upon him. If he has, he ought to provide for their future. If he is dependent upon a salary or income which will terminate with his life, it is peculiarly incumbent upon him to insure that life for the benefit of his wife and children so that they may not be left penniless."

SMALL towns continue to gain enterprises if citizens are active. For instance, at Detroit Lakes, the Madison Silo company of Winona has leased property on which it will start construction of a silo factory to serve the northwestern section of the state. The factory will be the eighth branch plant established by the company. It will employ 15 people.

A GROWING demand for farm land at fair prices is being reported throughout the state. With soil conditions in Minnesota in excellent shape for crops this spring, we have something to show the prospective purchaser.

"Dora's Delight,"
a Bungalow

By RUBY DOUGLAS

(Copyright.)

DORA was always the little sister of the family and, probably, as such, had been a trifle pampered. At least, somehow or other, she had acquired the habit of getting whatever she wanted out of life.

The particular thing Dora coveted at present was a bungalow on the Connecticut river on the New Hampshire side. She had seen it first from a canoe in which she was being paddled by an adoring young man. It had appealed to her as being the most homey, most comfortable, most artistic summer cottage she had ever seen. Subsequently, she had seen it whenever she had been spending her college holidays in Vermont with her grandparents. She had even discovered who owned it and was now quietly laying plans to make their acquaintance.

Dora's grandmother was one of the members of the family who had helped to spoil Dora. Therefore, in a very determined but quiet way she decided that if her grandchild wanted that bungalow and it was possible to have it, she should.

"And what would you do with it, once you had acquired it, my dear?" she asked Dora.

"I'd have a very small and very exclusive girls' camp. A camp where girls would never get homesick. I have had a picture of it in my mind ever since I, myself, went to a camp that was not any of these things. I wonder how I can get that bungalow?"

Grandmother's eyes danced. "What would you give me for some very favorable news about it, Dora?"

"A hug and a kiss—and I'd make you Charleston with me if you would. Please—please, grandmother, tell me."

"It belongs to a family in Brattleboro that has gone there so many summers that the joy has worn off. They would be glad to sell it. I have written to your father to come at once and look into it."

"Oh, grandmother, do you think he will?"

"With his mother and his favorite baby wishing it—of course he will," said the elderly woman, confidently.

And thus it was that Dora became the possessor of the bungalow by the river. She named it "Dora's Delight."

Her first visit to it as her own was a big event. She asked some school friends and they spent a week getting it into shape, making plans, sewing curtains, painting, papering and generally beautifying the somewhat neglected interior.

Two of the girls promised to help her with the first season's camp merely for the pleasure of spending the summer in so romantic a spot. A canoe and a flat-bottom boat had been acquired with the property and the milkman across the river and the rural postman were soon aware of the fact that there were young people at the bungalow.

Dora's charge to the girls who were to come to her camp for a month was very low for she had managed to get her grandmother to promise all the vegetables and fruits from her farm for nothing.

One day after Dora had driven her little roadster through the narrow, woodsey path on the New Hampshire side of the river and across the old covered bridge to her grandmother's house she found a strange visitor on the porch.

Dora's grandmother was within and she beckoned, behind the man's back, to the girl.

"What's the mystery, grandmother?" asked Dora, kissing her.

"That is Mr. Landon. He has a little girl seven years old. His wife is dead. He wants to send Jean to your camp and—she is too young to fit in with your plans."

"There is no age limit—in my camp. I'd love to have her."

"Come out," said her grandmother. "We'll talk it over."

Dora felt at once a warm sympathy for the big man who took her hand in such friendly grip when the elderly woman introduced him.

"But—I'd love to have your little Jean," she said. "We will take the best of care of her."

Almost an hour passed before arrangements were completed. It was agreed that the father should bring his small daughter to Dora's on the following Saturday.

The little one proved to be a sunny young person with a wistful look in her eyes that seemed to tell the story of her early loss.

Whether Fate was just carrying out the habit of Dora's family in always letting her have what she wanted or not, no one can say, but the camp proved to be all that its owner expected of it in the way of a harmonious and happy place for the girls and grownups. It did not pay a great deal, but that was not the object.

Dora was happier than she had ever been before. Little by little, she was learning that the companionship of Jean's father was one of the things she must have.

Fortunately, the big man felt the same way and he obtained Dora's promise to marry him—some time—and in return, he agreed to keep her camp for her, inasmuch as it was the medium through which they had met.

"It shall always be yours even though you may not actually run it, yourself, dear," he told her. "We shall keep it as a reminder to make others happy in return for our discovery of the great gift."

PITTSBURGH PIRATES GIVEN "ONCE OVER"

WERE BIGGEST DISAPPOINTMENT IN 1926 SEASON

FURNISHED THE GREATEST UP-SET OF FORM IN YEAR HAVING MANY SURPRISES

INJURIES AND INTERNAL DISSENSION BROKE UP THE CLUB

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 4. — Without doubt the Pittsburgh Pirates were the biggest disappointment in the 1926 season and furnished the greatest upset of form in a year that had many surprises.

Several factors caused the collapse of a club that had won a world championship and had youth and power behind it.

Injuries no doubt were responsible for the loss of many games but it really was internal dissension that broke up the club, caused the owners to replace Bill McKechnie as manager by Donie Bush and to release several high class players.

The team last year had strength to do more than it did and Bush found a club that needed little treatment with the exception of a good bucking up and some strong bossing.

The infield is strong, the outfield is powerful on offense and defense and the batteries, while not the best in the league, are first class.

Pie Traynor and Glenn Wright are perhaps the best left-corner infield combination in the game. Traynor is at the top of his game and he still has youth. Wright is just getting into his prime.

Rhyme at second base ought to be better after one year of hard experience but he may have to hustle to keep Joe Cronin, a youngster, from taking his job. Grantham at first base isn't a world beater but he is a hard hitter and a steady fielder.

The outfield is graced by two of the best youngsters in the business — Kiki Taylor and Paul Waner, who took Max Carey's place in center field when the veteran captain was relieved. Cuyler didn't live up to his 1925 form last season. Waner is a coming star and gives promise of being one of the greatest of outfielders.

The club has a wide selection of pitchers in Aldridge, Bush, Cuyler, Kremer, Meadows, Yde, Songer and Morrison.

The club will have to hustle for Bush and there will be no cliques of bench managers such as handicapped McKechnie. It is a good looking club and is certain to be a contender.

BABE RUTH IS REPRIMANDED BY MILLER HUGGINS

Atlanta, Ga., April 4. — (UP) — Charged with carelessness in observing the training rules, Babe Ruth and his new buddy, Dutch Reuther, were reprimanded today by Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yankees, and were warned that next time he will put the knife to work on the pay checks.

Although he is favoring a bad leg, Ruth, until yesterday's game, hadn't been hitting a la Ruth and his work in the field was not that of a $210,000 player. Reuther has a lame back.

'GRUDGE' MATCH BETWEEN SARAZEN AND HAGEN

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., April 4. — (UP) — Recently Gene Sarazen published an article in which he said he always had success in defeating Walter Hagen, professional golf champion.

Sunday Sarazen proved he had basis for his statement by trimming Hagen 2-1 in a 36 hole match of dazzling golf. It was a "grudge" match arranged following the southern open tournament.

Sarazen won by superiority with his tee shots, outdriving his rival twenty-two times. Gene, by par golf, gained a lead of 5 up on the first eight holes when many of Hagen's forced second shots were trapped.

By noon Hagen had won back two holes and finally evened the match by the tenth hole in the afternoon. Sarazen, however, went one up again on the twelfth hole and maintained his lead until the end.

Predict Tight Race

Ty Cobb and Eddie Collins, two of the outstanding stars of the American league, predict a tight race for 1927. Both players say the Boston Red Sox is the only team you can definitely count out in the winter books.

Each likes the chances of Philadelphia and Washington best, with little to choose between New York and Cleveland. They rate Detroit, St. Louis and Chicago in the third tier of contenders.

SQUASH TENNIS GAINING FAVOR

Fits in Perfectly With the Tempo of Life in 1927.

The real reason for the extraordinary growth and ever-increasing popularity of squash tennis in the larger cities, says John R. Tunis, The Sportsman, is that it fits in so perfectly with the tempo of life in 1927.

Mr. Tunis holds that "this subtle game with its mobile variety, its dazlingly quick changes and exchanges dovetails perfectly with the external life in the great cities in the United States.

"Its cheapness, its variety and speed, its accessibility, its competitions, its opportunity for exercise and concentrated exercise—these are just a few of the qualities that endear squash tennis to the business man.

"With the development of the round-the-court game, that is, letting the ball carom from five walls before hitting it, which has been the means of expression of all the great players, there has been evolved a variety of shots which can perhaps be equaled only in such a game as billiards.

"Shoer speed has never won at squash tennis. Position play, a knowledge of court angles, footwork, and the ability to move quickly and anticipate shots are of far more value than speed, as the final results have shown on more than one occasion.

"You have shots that are impossible in any other game. It is these strokes which make the niceties of position play of such vast importance in squash tennis, and it is this wide scope of shots from all sorts of angles and all sorts of positions upon the court which makes it such a delightful mental as well as physical struggle. This explains why so many men, who during summer play nothing but a little golf, pursue squash tennis with such keenness and devotion during the winter."

According to Mr. Tunis the game originated late in the last century when two Bostonians, prevented from playing tennis by rain, retired to an empty barn. Later they played the game in New York in a fencing room and the idea immediately caught the fancy of such prominent New York tennis players as Harold Hackett and F. B. Alexander.

GETS IN THE MONEY CLASS AT PEORIA

SHOT 659 IN THE SINGLES OF A. B. C. TOURNAMENT

BENDA IN FORMER YEARS WAS SHORSTOP OF BRAINERD NINE

The Daily Times of Moline, Ill., publishes the picture of Bill Benda, former Brainerd boy, and gives him a seven column sport page headline, "Benda Only Tri-City Bowler in Money at Peoria."

Bill Benda member of the Silvia Shops bowling team, was the only tri-city bowler to get in the money class at Peoria in the A. B. C. Benda shot 659 in the singles late yesterday afternoon (March 30), leading the local entries in the individual events.

Benda in his boyhood was the diminutive shortstop of the regular city team of Brainerd, a good batter and fielder. The family then lived at 1117 South Fifth street.

In Leo Kautz's story, sports writer of the Moline Daily Times, he relates that seventy-five bowlers from the tri-cities and vicinity, came home from the American Bowling Congress at Peoria, rich in experience but with little hope of getting a slice of the big money offered as prizes at the annual international bowling classic. Bill Benda, veteran bowler who rolls with the Silvia shops quintet, led the Peoria stars in the individual events rolled at the Peoria armory. Benda came through with a count of 659 which should give him a fair chunk of the singles money, at least enough to pay his expenses to the meet.

Benda got away to a good start in his singles with 225. His second game totalled 232 and he went into the third game with four strikes in a row. The fans in the balcony gave Bill a rousing cheer as he continued knocking off the pins, but the Silvia pin smasher weakened in the pinch and with a couple of bad breaks, got only 202 in the last game. His 659 places him in the first 20, but was not quite good enough for the 10 select leaders.

Only four 600 counts were turned in by the local men. Besides Benda's big score, F. Erickson of the John Deere Harvester team counted 637, J. Koprucki of Bettendorf got 619 and Bill Asmus of Martin Cigars, 610.

Peoria welcomed the tri-city entries with open arms. There wasn't a dull moment for the pin smashers from the time they hit the wild Illinois town Tuesday afternoon until they left late at night. The sky was the limit and from the looks of some of the scores, several of the local boys hit the sky. "Bowlers' Paradise" is the name tacked on Peoria by the thousands of A. B. C. entrants.

TWO A. B. C. LEADERS OVERTHROWN SUNDAY

Peoria, Ill., April 4. — (UP) — Two American bowling congress tournament leaders were overthrown Sunday. Two more series of home than 3,000 pins were registered, sending the total of the present meet to seven — a new A. B. C. record.

The Witter Razz, of St. Louis, with 3,082 pins, passed the Koors 29 of Dayton, which had held the five-man team lead for two weeks. The

C. C. Baker music stores, Columbus, shot 3,015 for ninth position.

William Eggars, Chicago, a member of the Brucks team when they won the national title here in 1920, shot 706 in the singles to go into first place. It was the second 700 series in the individual event. The other was registered by B. Peterson, a young Chicagoan, who hit 701 three weeks ago and had held the lead ever since.

C. C. PYLE MAY PROMOTE NATIONAL HOCKEY TEAMS

Montreal, April 4. — (UP) — C. C. Pyle, sports promoter, has made offers to the local National Hockey League clubs, the Maroons and Les Canadiens, to send ten men to California for exhibition games in Los Angeles, where he intends to promote the sport.

Pyle's offer to Les Canadiens was declined, as most of the players have other jobs. The Maroons are considering and many of the players think favorably of the plan. It is thought Pyle will try to secure a team from the Maple Leafs of Toronto.

World Three Cushion Billiard Championship at Stake This Evening

Chicago, April 4. — (UP) — The world's three cushion billiard championship will be at stake when Augie Kleckhefer and Otto Reisel play the first 60 point block of a 300 point match here this evening.

Kleckhefer, present champion, won his title from Reisel here about two months ago in the finals of the world's three cushion tournament. In the interim both players have made imposing records against numerous other opponents.

In the championship match here in which the championship changed hands Kleckhefer won in 31 innings, the best record of the tournament.

A Big Task

To fuel and lubricate the millions of motor vehicles of the Middle West is the big task undertaken by this company.

An increase in two years of more than a million motor vehicles indicates that this is a task of rapidly growing proportions, a solution of which requires foresight and adjustability.

The total number of cars and trucks registered in the ten states of the Middle West, served by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana), was 5,508,570 in 1924 and 6,729,749 in 1926.

This means that within two years the number of motor vehicles in the Middle West increased by 1,221,179.

Finding crude petroleum and converting it into fuel and lubricants for more than six and one-half million motor vehicles is only a part of the work of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana).

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) not only produces petroleum products of superior quality, but it distributes them to every corner of the territory it serves.

On all the highways that weave an intricate pattern over the ten great Middle Western States, the service stations of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are found supplying fuel and oil to the cars and trucks that pass.

Nor does the service of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) stop with its own service stations.

Thousands of garages, privately owned filling stations and curb pumps selling Standard Oil Company (Indiana) products dot the landscape of the Middle West. The company's own trucks and tank wagons carry its gasoline, lubricating oil and kerosene to the motorist and to the farmer—even to the tractor in the field when required.

Employees of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) are anxious to be helpful. They are enthusiastic about their work. They do every job as if it were the only one they had to do. They take a personal pride in maintaining the reputation of the company of which they are a part.

29,573 men and women working with this spirit perform a task which is of fundamental importance in the lives of thirty million people in the Middle West.

PITTSBURGH PIRATES GIVEN "ONCE OVER"

WERE BIGGEST DISAPPOINTMENT IN 1926 SEASON

FURNISHED THE GREATEST UP-SET OF FORM IN YEAR HAVING MANY SURPRISES

INJURIES AND INTERNAL DISSENSION BROKE UP THE CLUB

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 4. — Without doubt the Pittsburgh Pirates were the biggest disappointment in the 1926 season and furnished the greatest upset of form in a year that had many surprises.

Several factors caused the collapse of a club that had won a world championship and had youth and power behind it.

Injuries no doubt were responsible for the loss of many games but it really was internal dissension that broke up the club, caused the owners to replace Bill McKechnie as manager by Donie Bush and to release several high class players.

The team last year had strength to do more than it did and Bush found a club that needed little treatment with the exception of a good bucking up and some strong bossing.

The infield is strong, the outfield is powerful on offense and defense and the batteries, while not the best in the league, are first class.

CLASHES BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND FOREIGNERS OCCUR

YANGTZE VALLEY CITIES, CHUNGKIANG AND HANKOW, ARE STORM CENTERS

COOLEYS REPULSED BY MACHINE GUN FIRE AS THEY TRIED TO BOARD VESSEL

By H. FRANCIS MISSELWITZ (United Press Staff Correspondent)
Shanghai, April 4. — Clashes between Chinese and foreigners were reported today in two Yangtze valley cities—Chungkiang, where U. S. troops with machine guns fired on coolies attempting to swarm aboard a steamer, wounding three, and Hankow, where 10 Japanese were missing after a fight at the Japanese concession, which was attacked by mobs. Japanese sailors were forced to fire into one mob.

At the same time, the Cantonese were reported to have launched their northward drive toward Peking—the last step of the long battle for control of China.

At Chungkiang, scores of coolies in sampans paddled out to the steamer Chinan and attempted to board it, apparently for looting. American troops from the U. S. Monocacy swept the attackers with machine guns and the miniature navy withdrew in disorder, bearing the three wounded coolies ashore.

Conditions at Hankow appeared critical. The Chinese demanded that Japanese marines and gunboats be withdrawn on the ground that they were inflaming the natives.

The trouble was understood to have started when natives heckled and insulted a Japanese sailor ashore. The sailor resented the outburst and was joined by several comrades, who were attacked by the crowd.

The incident rapidly grew to serious proportions and mobs attacked the Japanese concession, looted Japanese shops and assaulted Japanese in the streets. Sailors were hastily landed from gunboats in the river. They fired on one mob, dispersing it, and then were placed on guard at the concession while Japanese nationalists fled to the gunboats.

Five civilians and five sailors were missing after the first riots, and the situation was reported to be growing worse.

Several hours before the trouble started the U. S. consul reported evacuation of Americans was proceeding satisfactorily, but that several had refused to leave.

First evidence of the start of the "on to Peking" campaign was noted at Chinkiang, where Cantonese troops crossed the Yangtze river to the north bank, apparently equipped for a major military movement.

The apparent beginning of the northward drive came as a surprise, as was reported among the southern leaders. It had been reported that General Chiang Kai-Shek, commander of the army, and an adherent of the moderate faction, was to be relieved of his command by the radical left wing.

The plan of the northern campaign, as announced by Chiang, is to drive northward in three columns, one along the sea coast through Shantung, one through Honan province and one along the Nanking-Peking railway, all with the common destination, the northern capital, stronghold of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin.

London, April 4.—The Cantonese drive for Peking was under way today, dispatches from special correspondents to three London newspapers reported.

The nationalists already have captured Pengpu, 100 miles north of Nanking. The Daily Express correspondent said.

A dispatch to The Daily Mail said the northerners were not offering the slightest resistance to the advancing armies. The southerners were pushing forward on three fronts—one from Chingkiang, one from the interior was driving to the coastal province of Shantung, while natives of Shantung were leaving for Manchuria.

The Daily Telegraph reported General Feng Yuh-Hsiang to be advancing through the province of Shansi.

An exchange telegraph said guerrillas were active in Shanghai and had been fired on by British sailors. The Sunday Observer said communism was rampant in Shanghai and Marshal Chang Tso-Lin, northern commander had appealed to foreign ministers for support in his anti-red campaign.

It was reported in authoritative quarters that Britain is confident the United States and Japan will agree to join representations to the Cantonese over the Nanking incident, and believes a note now being considered by the three governments will be delivered to the southern Chinese government within three days.

London, April 4.—An exchange telegraph dispatch from Hongkong today said British sailors and Chinese coolies clashed at Shai after a case of foreign goods had been confiscated and burned by the Chinese. Anti-foreign feeling was increasing at Shai, the dispatch said, the conditions were becoming chaotic.

Chinese police were said to have been routed in a second street fight after a hand-to-hand engagement with labor pickets. Bandits raided a Chinese shipping office and looted the contents.

Shai is a treaty port in the province of Hupeh, on the Yangtze river and 110 miles from Ichang.

Washington, April 4—Chinese are attempting to take revenge on Americans, British and Japanese at Chungkiang. Admiral C. S. Williams, commander-in-chief of the Asiatic fleet, reported to the navy department today.

LATEST REPORTS FROM BEDSIDE OF HENRY FORD

INDICATE HE WAS RECOVERING NORMALLY FROM HIS INJURIES

COLLISION OF CARS IS NOW BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN AN ACCIDENT

By FOSTER EATON (United Press Staff Correspondent)
Detroit, Mich., April 4. — Latest reports from the bedside of Henry Ford indicated today he was recovering normally from injuries suffered a week ago last night in an automobile accident involving his own Ford coupe and an unknown "hit and run" car.

Meanwhile, despite original reports that Ford personally regarded the affair as "suspicious," every authority interested in any investigation has expressed satisfaction that the incident was nothing more than an accident. The billionaire's own investigators declared they had washed their hands of the nearly fatal collision.

Although the world's richest individual was generally understood to be confined to his bed at the Ford Dearborn estate, the as yet unnamed person responsible for his plight enjoyed freedom today and presumably at Ford's specific request.

CLASHES BETWEEN THE CHINESE AND FOREIGNERS OCCUR

YANGTZE VALLEY CITIES, CHUNGKANG AND HANKOW, ARE STORM CENTERS

COOLEYS REPULSED BY MACHINE GUN FIRE AS THEY TRIED TO BOARD VESSEL

By H. FRANCIS MISSELTWITZ
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Shanghai, April 4. — Clashes between Chinese and foreigners were reported today in two Yangtze valley cities—Chungkiang, where U. S. troops with machine guns fired on coolies attempting to swarm aboard a steamer, wounding three, and Hankow, where 10 Japanese were missing after a fight at the Japanese concession, which was attacked by mobs. Japanese sailors were forced to fire into one mob.

At the same time, the Cantonese were reported to have launched their northward drive toward Peking—last step of the long battle for control of China.

At Chungkiang, scores of coolies in sampans paddled out to the steamer Chinan and attempted to board it, apparently for looting. American troops from the U. S. Monocacy swept the attackers with machine guns and the miniature navy withdrew in disorder, bearing the three wounded coolies ashore.

Conditions at Hankow appeared critical. The Chinese demanded that Japanese marines and gunboats be withdrawn on the ground that they were inflaming the natives.

The trouble was understood to have started when natives heckled and insulted a Japanese sailor ashore. The sailor resented the outburst and was joined by several comrades, who were attacked by the crowd.

The incident rapidly grew to serious proportions and mobs attacked the Japanese concession, looted Japanese shops and assaulted Japanese in the streets. Sailors were hastily landed from gunboats in the river. They fired on one mob, dispersing it, and then were placed on guard at the concession while Japanese nationalists fled to the gunboats.

Five civilians and five sailors were missing after the first riots, and the situation was reported to be growing worse.

Several hours before the trouble started the U. S. consul reported evacuation of Americans was proceeding satisfactorily, but that several had refused to leave.

First evidence of the start of the "on to Peking" campaign was noted at Chungkiang, where Cantonese troops crossed the Yangtze river to the north bank, apparently equipped for a major military movement.

The apparent beginning of the northward drive came as a surprise as was reported among the southern leaders. It had been reported that General Chiang Kai-Shek, commander of the army, and an adherent of the moderate faction, was to be relieved of his command by the radical left wing.

The plan of the northern campaign, as announced by Chiang, is to drive northward in three columns, one along the sea coast through Shantung, one through Honan province and one along the Nanking-Peking railway, all with the common destination, the northern capital, stronghold of Marshal Chang Tso-Lin.

London, April 4.—The Cantonese drive for Peking was under way today, dispatches from special correspondents to three London newspapers reported.

The nationalists already have captured Pengpu, 100 miles north of Nanking. The Daily Express correspondent said.

A dispatch to The Daily Mail said the northerners were not offering the slightest resistance to the advancing armies. The southerners were pushing forward on three fronts—one from Chingkiang, one from the interior was driving to the coastal province of Shantung, while natives of Shantung were leaving for Manchuria.

The Daily Telegraph reported General Feng Yuh-Hsiang to be advancing through the province of Shansi.

Amendments Are Explained

Upon petitions of citizens, the Charter Commission has drafted three amendments which will be voted upon tomorrow. Everybody should consider it very essential that his or her ballot is marked yes or no for each amendment offered. We must have the wish of the people fully demonstrated. If the existing provisions of the Charter adopted long ago are no longer expressive of the present situations, by all means change them. If you are satisfied to continue as you have in the past, or see no gains in what is offered, by no means vote a change. Each person must be his own judge as what is best or proper or fair. Sometimes we must subdue our selfishness, because we know that others too must derive obvious benefits now denied them.

Amendments are usually difficult to understand. Sometimes an easy one comes along. For example, are you agreeable to providing more money for your parks; if you do not provide more—and that means only about $800 per year, your Park Board will have to call a halt on some of its work and let the parks suffer. This situation is the result of a growth in our town and parks and is not a willful expenditure caused by the Board. Here is really a deficiency to be met, and it is done by raising the present maximum rate of 3-4 mill to 1 mill. That is one amendment.

Another amendment is to enable dividing the second ward into two wards. This is now the largest ward in the city from the standpoint of population. In size, it ranks next to the third ward. It now has two voting precincts, each with a vote as large as the whole vote that is cast by some of the other existing wards. Therefore, some people argue that the ward should be divided, to bring about more equal representation between the various sections of the city. The point is right. "You scratch my back and I'll scratch yours," is an old saying and it happens to be applicable. Maybe you will want your back scratched some day. You decide this for yourselves. What is the fair thing to do.

Another amendment, if adopted, could limit the number of aldermen to one from each ward; now we have two from each ward and, therefore, a total of ten aldermen constituting the Council. If you adopt the Amendment, creating another ward by dividing the Second ward, you automatically add two more aldermen to the Council. If you also adopt this amendment providing for one alderman for each ward, the Council will then consist of six aldermen. Each alderman is paid $50 per year. Is the Council too big with 10 or 12 aldermen sitting around the table; or, is a council of five or six aldermen sufficient. That is what you are expected to answer by voting on this amendment.

NOTED TIMBER ESTIMATOR DIES

George Wellington Jenkins, Founder of Jenkins Village Died Yesterday

FUNERAL TOMORROW

Came to Brainerd in 1878; Employed in Timber Work Until 1925

George Wellington Jenkins, founder of Jenkins village, a timber cruiser and estimator for the past 50 years and a resident of this section of the northwest for practically half a century passed away yesterday morning at the age of 81 years at his residence 720 South 8th street.

Mr. Jenkins whose life achievements have been envious ones was born in St. John's, New Brunswick, Canada. He came from Canada to Brainerd in 1878, entering the employ of the Clough Brothers as a timber cruiser and estimator. David Clough, one of the brothers of the firm was a former governor of Minnesota.

In 1895, Mr. Jenkins became timber estimator for the government on the Chipewyan Indian reserve in territories at Red Lake, Lake of the Woods and Leech Lake. He worked at that position until 1899 when he did cruising and estimating for the Minnesota Land and Colonization Company with headquarters at St. Paul until 1901.

In April 1902, he left for California to estimate land for T. B. Walker, of Minneapolis who had scripped 65,000 acres of timber lands in eastern California. He remained in California until June, 1925 when he returned to Brainerd and retired from business life.

Mr. Jenkins also operated a ranch where Jenkins village is now located. The village which was platted in 1902 and the township, were named after him as an appreciation for his work there.

Mrs. Jenkins passed away four years ago. Immediate relatives who survive him are two sons, Earl W. and Roland J. Jenkins, of Brainerd, besides other relatives in the east.

The funeral will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Presbyterian church, Rev. A. G. Patterson, officiating. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

COL. DE PINEDO, THE FASCIST ACE, RENEWS FLIGHT

RISES FROM MEDINA LAKE, TEX., WITH GIANT HYDRO-MONOPLANE

HUGE CRAFT LABORED 2 HOURS BEFORE IT SUCCESSFULLY TOOK OFF

Medina Lake, San Antonio, Texas, April 4.—(UP)—Taking the air on the third leg of his trans-American flight, Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Fascist ace, rose from Medina Lake at 8:03 A. M. today in his giant hydro-mono-plane.

The huge craft labored for over two hours before it successfully rose from the calm waters, and it was necessary to lighten the cargo by discharging 200 gallons of gasoline.

De Pinedo announced his destination as Lake Hall, Hot Springs, N. M. A flotilla of motor boats was pressed into service to assist the mono-plane in rising. The small craft circled about the plane, kicking up waves to cause the Santa Maria to pitch in order to permit the wings to catch currents of air.

There was a light mist hanging over the hills around the lake, but otherwise flying conditions were good.

A slight breeze finally gave the plane the lift it needed and De Pinedo and Captain Carlo Del Prete, assistant pilot, and Vitale Zaccchetti, were on another lap of their race from Italy through three continents.

Before leaving, De Pinedo expressed to the United Press his "great pleasure in the receptions accorded him and his companions."

"I am receiving so many personal messages I cannot undertake to answer them all," the flyer said. "But I wish the senders to know I appreciate them all and that I regret a great deal I cannot answer them personally."

De Pinedo believes his supply of gasoline is sufficient to carry him to Hot Springs, despite the lightening of the craft by discharging 200 gallons. He is confident he will reach the New Mexico town early this afternoon.

Members of the United States army flying corps stationed at Kelly Field here too express confidence in the plane's ability to reach Hot Springs before the gasoline supply is exhausted.

De Pinedo will be flying over a plains country where communication facilities are meager in the extreme. Should his plane be damaged or his gasoline supply be exhausted he would have difficulty in finding a suitable landing place. The mono-plane is not equipped for coming down on land.

U. S. SENDS INSTRUCTIONS TO MINISTER

REGARDING JOINT AMERICAN-BRITISH-JAPANESE DEMANDS TO BE TRANSMITTED TO THE NATIONALIST CHINESE GOVERNMENT

By LUDWELL DENNY (United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, April 4.—The United States government today sent its delayed instructions to Minister MacMurray in Peking, regarding joint American-British-Japanese demands to the nationalist Chinese government, the United Press learned.

The instructions are understood to modify the joint draft demands MacMurray submitted to the state department last week after his conferences with the British and Japanese ministers.

His new orders permit joint demands for indemnity for the Nanking and other outrages, and request guarantees for future protection of foreign lives and property, but they do not authorize an American or joint ultimatum, according to informed persons here.

It is considered probable that MacMurray and the British and Japanese ministers in Peking will be able to agree on joint action along American lines.

The ministers in Peking are said to be undecided whether to send the prospective demands to Nationalist Foreign Minister Chen, or to General Chiang Kai-Shek in Shanghai, in view of unofficial reports of a split within the nationalist regime.

Unofficial reports today indicated the nationalist military drive toward Peking will be more rapid than at first anticipated, with the northern general, Chang Tso-Lin, unofficially reported ready to withdraw into Manchuria and leave the nationalist advance practically unopposed.

Official sentiment here is based on a desire to protect legitimate American interests, without issuing a sweeping ultimatum which American forces might not be strong enough to enforce. Officials here are especially anxious to avoid foreign action which might stimulate rather than check anti-foreign outbursts in China.

Vallejo, Calif., April 4.—Bound for San Diego to join the latest contingent of 1,500 men destined for service in China, 118 marines under Lieut. L. E. Powers left here today.

The marines were to reach San Francisco at 11:30 A. M. aboard the steamer Monticello, where they will entrain in four special Santa Fe cars for the southern terminus.

The movement leaves only 140 officers and men on duty at the Mare Island station.

COL. DE PINEDO, THE FASCIST ACE, RENEWS FLIGHT

RISES FROM MEDINA LAKE, TEX., WITH GIANT HYDRO-
MONOPLANE

HUGE CRAFT LABORED 2 HOURS
BEFORE IT SUCCESSFULLY
TOOK OFF

Medina Lake, San Antonio, Texas, April 4.—(UP)—Taking the air on the third leg of his trans-American flight, Commander Francesco De Pinedo, Fascist ace, rose from Medina Lake at 8:03 A. M. today in his giant hydro-mono-plane.

The huge craft labored for over two hours before it successfully rose from the calm waters, and it was necessary to lighten the cargo by discharging 200 gallons of gasoline.

De Pinedo announced his destination as Lake Hall, Hot Springs, N. M.

A flotilla of motor boats was pressed into service to assist the mono-plane in rising. The small craft circled about the plane, kicking up waves to cause the Santa Maria to pitch in order to permit the wings to catch currents of air.

There was a light mist hanging over the hills around the lake, but otherwise flying conditions were good.

A slight breeze finally gave the plane the lift it needed and De Pinedo and Captain Carlo Del Prete, assistant pilot, and Vitale Zaccchetti, were on another lap of their race from Italy through three continents.

Before leaving, De Pinedo expressed to the United Press his "great pleasure in the reception accorded him and his companions."

"I am receiving so many personal messages I cannot undertake to answer them all," the flyer said. "But I wish the senders to know I appreciate them all and that I regret a great deal I cannot answer them personally."

De Pinedo believes his supply of gasoline is sufficient to carry him to Hot Springs, despite the lightening of the craft by discharging 200 gallons. He is confident he will reach the New Mexico town early this afternoon.

Members of the United States army flying corps stationed at Kelly Field here too express confidence in the plane's ability to reach Hot Springs before the gasoline supply is exhausted.

De Pinedo will be flying over a plains country where communication facilities are meager in the extreme. Should his plane be damaged or his gasoline supply be exhausted he would have difficulty in finding a suitable landing place. The mono-plane is not equipped for coming down on land.

U. S. SENDS INSTRUCTIONS TO MINISTER

REGARDING JOINT AMERICAN-
BRITISH-JAPANESE
DEMANDS

TO BE TRANSMITTED TO THE NA-TIONALIST CHINESE GOV-ERNMENT

By LUDWELL DENNY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 4.—The United States government today sent its delayed instructions to Minister MacMurray in Peking, regarding joint American-British-Japanese demands to the nationalist Chinese government, the United Press learned.

The instructions are understood to modify the joint draft demands MacMurray submitted to the state department last week after his conferences with the British and Japanese ministers.

His new orders permit joint demands for indemnity for the Nanjing and other outrages, and request guarantees for future protection of foreign lives and property, but they do not authorize an American or joint ultimatum, according to informed persons here.

It is considered probable that MacMurray and the British and Japanese ministers in Peking will be able to agree on joint action along American lines.

The ministers in Peking are said to be undecided whether to send the prospective demands to Nationalist Foreign Minister Chen, or to General Chiang Kai-Shek in Shanghai, in view of unofficial reports of a split within the nationalist regime.

Unofficial reports today indicated the nationalist military drive toward Peking will be more rapid than at first anticipated, with the northern general, Chang Tso-Lin, unofficially reported ready to withdraw into Manchuria and leave the nationalist advance practically unopposed.

Official sentiment here is based on a desire to protect legitimate American interests, without issuing a sweeping ultimatum which American forces might not be strong enough to enforce. Officials here are especially anxious to avoid foreign action which might stimulate rather than check anti-foreign outbursts in China.

Vallejo, Calif., April 4.—Bound for San Diego to join the latest contingent of 1,500 men destined for service in China, 118 marines under Lieut. L. E. Powers left here today.

The marines were to reach San Francisco at 11:30 A. M. aboard the steamer Monticello, where they will entrain in four special Santa Fe cars for the southern cantonment.

The movement leaves only 140 officers and men on duty at the Mare Island station.

Another fine picture made under her personal supervision has been released nationally and will play at the Lyceum theatre Tuesday, one day only.
